

Nowra has long been the historical and tourism heart of the beautiful South Coast. One panoramic look across the magnificent Shoalhaven River out to Mount Coolangatta and the national parklands beyond and you'll see why...

Situated on the Shoalhaven River itself, and graced with spectacular natural attractions, Nowra is an historic township that is central to everything that the Shoalhaven South region has to offer. And now a fresh new addition to the Nowra landscape is about to spring forth...

A town where families can breathe the clean air, walk among pristine bushland and national park, and enjoy the simple natural pleasures of the flow of a mighty river or the daily spectacle of a sunset over a mountain range. An address close to shops, schools, and modern amenities where residents want for nothing, yet appreciate everything.
